

FIRST DEFIED ENGLAND.

Interesting Historic Document Shows Norfolk, Va., Citizens Were Ahead of Philadelphia

Special to the Ocala Banner:

Norfolk, Va., July 26, 1906.
The coming Jamestown Exposition has to mind many historic facts since forgotten.

While loath to leave the British Empire, the patriots of Norfolk, Va., were the first to resent the aggression of the British Stamp Act which led to the American revolution. Under the name of "The Sons of Liberty" they assembled in Norfolk on March 13th, and in bold and determined phrases announced their intention of resisting any further aggression on the part of the English Parliament. This was two months before the promulgation of the celebrated Mecklenburg Declaration of Independence and nearly five before the thirteen colonies assembled in Philadelphia to forever cast off the authority of the British crown and start the country on a career of prosperity and glory which will be celebrated at the Jamestown Exposition to be held at Hampton Roads near Norfolk, in 1907.

The Norfolk people did not declare their independence, but expressly affirmed their wish to be subjects of King George III. They merely stated their determination that they should not be taxed without representation.
The resolutions read as follows: Having taken into consideration the tendency of that oppressive and unconstitutional act of parliament commonly called the Stamp Act, and being desirous that our sentiments should be known to posterity and respecting that we are a part of the people who first in general assembly expressed their detestation of the said act (which is pregnant with in and productive of the most pernicious consequences and, unwilling to rivet the shackles of slavery and oppression on ourselves and millions yet unborn, have unanimously come to the following resolutions:

Resolved, That we acknowledge King George III. to be our lawful and sovereign, King George Third, to be our rightful and lawful King and that we will, at all times, with the utmost of our power and ability, support and defend his most sacred person, crown and dignity; and that we will always be ready, when constituted by law, to assist his Majesty, with our lives and fortunes; and to defend his just rights and prerogatives.

Resolved, That we will by all lawful ways and means which Divine Providence has put into our hands, maintain ourselves in the full enjoyment of, and preserve inviolate to ourself, those inestimable privileges of all freeborn British subjects, of being taxed only by representatives of their own choosing; and of being governed by none but a jury of their peers. And that if we quietly submit to the execution of the said Stamp Act, all our claims to civil liberty will be lost, and we and our subjects in America are deprived of the invaluable privileges aforementioned.

Resolved, That a committee be appointed who shall in such manner they think proper, go upon necessary business and make public the above resolutions, and that they correspond as they shall see occasion with the Associated Sons of the United States, Liberty in the other British colonies of America." As a result of the adoption of the resolutions, Lord Dunmore, the British colonial governor, made a demonstration before Norfolk. As a result of this and other outrages the Norfolk people were ready to throw off all authority and join with the other colonists when the Philadelphia Declaration of Independence was promulgated.

To Nominate Judicial Candidate.

Special to the Ocala Banner:

Jefferson City, Mo., July 26.—The Missouri state judicial convention will meet here this afternoon for the purpose of nominating a candidate for the short term on the supreme bench and for the transaction of any other business which may come up for consideration. The attendance at the convention will probably be very light, possibly lighter than at the state convention in May, when only 650 of the 1,076 delegates were present. It is understood that there are seven candidates for the judicial nomination in the field, but it is asserted by well informed delegates that the nomination will probably be offered to Assistant Attorney General John Kennish, of Holt county. The democrats have nominated that position Judge Waller W.
Hoyes, formerly of the law department of the Missouri Pacific railroad.

SOME OF THE HAPPENINGS OF THE OUTSIDE WORLD BRIEFLY TOLD.

Barrington Not Hanged.

Special to the Ocala Banner:

Jefferson City, Mo., July 26.—Today was the day originally set for the execution by hanging of F. Seymour Barrington, the bogus "Lord" Barrington, who was found guilty of the murder of James P. McCann. The execution did not take place, however, as his case will be brought before the United States supreme court on a writ of error.
"Lord" Barrington appeared in St.
Louis about four years ago and was apparently a man of leisure, wealth and aristocratic lineage. He spoke of his English estates and the ownership of Melrose Castle, and captivated Miss Grace Cochran, of Kansas City, and they were married. The falsity of his tales was soon after discovered and a divorce was granted to Mrs. Barrington. "Lord" Barrington then became acquainted with Mc-Cann, a prominent horseman, of St.
Louis. He was convicted of the murder of McCann, on June 18, 1903.

Louisiana's Pure Food and Patent Medicine Laws.

Special to the Ocala Banner:

New Orleans, July 26.—Louisiana bids fair to have one of the most stringent pure food and patent medicine laws of any state in the Union.
At the recent session of the legislature a bill was passed stipulating that all patent medicines should come up to the standard prescribed by the United States Pharmacopoeia and National Formulary, and authorizes the state board of health to draw up any sanitary code it desires. Dr. C. H.
Irion, president of the board, is known as a pure food and anti-patent medicine man, and he attended the recent Pure Food congress at Hartford, Conn., to gather data for formulating the code. It is strongly intimated that the new code will be severe on the manufacturer and vendor of harmful patent medicines and adulterated foods.

Young Gladstone of Age.

Special to the Ocala Banner:

London, July 26.—There is great rejoicing today at Hawarden, the seat of the late William Ewart Gladstone, and a great celebration is being held by the villagers and tenants of the estate to give expression to their joy over the fact that William Charles Glynne Gladstone, eldest grandson of William Ewart Gladstone, and heir to Hawarden, reached his majority today. Young Gladstone studied at Oxford, where he maintained the family record for scholarship and seriousness. He is one of the most promising speakers of the Oxford Union Debating Society, the nursery of cabinet ministers, and has joined the "80 Club," which his grandfather founded to celebrate his glorious victory in the campaign of 1880.

gion of New Hampshire, where they will await and welcome the participants in the Glidden tour, who are due at the woods on July 28.

Washington, D. C., July 26.—The annual department of the District of Columbia, United Spanish War Veterans, opened here today, with a large attendance. The principal business before the encampmander to succeed the incumbent, Commander John Lewis Smith, besides a senior and a junior vice-commander and other officers.

Indian Territory Confederates Meet.

Special to the Ocala Banner:

Ardmore, I. T., July 26.—The annual Confederate reunion of Indian Territory opened here this morning at the auditorium with a large attendance. Gen. John L. Galt, major-to order and Mayor R. W. Dick welcomed the delegates on behalf of the city. There were a number of inter-Ardmore band. In the afternoon there was a joint session of the United Confederate Veterans and the Con-

Christian Endeavor in Europe.

Special to the Ocala Banner:

Geneva, Switzerland, July 28.— Christian Endeavorers from all parts of the world are assembled here to attend the World's Christian Endeavor convention, and the all-European Christian Endeavor convention, which will be held here in connection with each other. The all-European convention opened today and will continue until August 1, when the World's convention will be called to order.
The number of delegates is larger than at any previous World's convention, showing a healthy growth of the Christian Endeavor movement everywhere. During a little more than twenty-five years since the founding of the Christian Endeavor society many millions of young people have enlisted under its banner in all parts of the world, and its literature has been translated into scores of languages. There are now more than 70, 000 Christian endeavor societies with nearly four million members.

nona Lake Chautauqua assembly. It or three more addresses before he leaves.

Climbing to the Top.

The candidacy of Hon. Eugene S.
Matthews of Bradford county for speaker of the next house of representatives is making rapid headway.
The News has a fatherly pride in Mr.
Matthews' candidacy for the reason that this paper was the first to suggest him for the place. Of course, this statement will be disputed, but that fact will only redound to the credit of the candidate. A real, catching suggestion always attracts a multiplicity of fathers.—Palatka News.

FLORIDA EDITORS TO BE IN-VITED.

Meeting of the Pen-Pushers To Be Held in Jacksonville During the Carnival

Jacksonville, Fla., July 26, 1906.

Special Correspondence:

Plans are on foot to have the editors of the state of Florida to meet in Jacksonville during the week of November 5-10, and the board of trade, recognizing the power of the press, will very probably make the necessary arrangements to entertain them.

This should be one of the largest meetings of newspaper men ever held in Florida as during that week the Jacksonville Carnival Association will hold its annual carnival, and the city being in gala attire, will prove more attractive than ever.

The Jacksonville Carnival Association, being composed of the editors of the three leading papers of the city, was organized for the purpose of annually bringing to Jacksonville the people of Florida and adjoining states, and thereby not only advertising the beauties and industrial and commercial advantages of the city, but giving to the merchants of this city a week in which to show the people that there is no necessity for sending to the big cities of the east for anything, as they could get everything in Jacksonville just as good and just as cheap as they could in New York or elsewhere.

The immense crowds and the large amount of money left in this city every year by the visitors to the Carnival show that the Carnival Association's plan is a success and this year they will again give to the people a week of amusement and promise them that neither money, labor nor time will be spared to make it better than ever.

As this is a newspaper enterprise, the papers all over the state are lending their influence and giving such assistance as they can, and the editors when they meet in Jacksonville this fall will be more than pleased not only with the reception given them by the people of the city, but with the high class of entertainment presented them for their enjoyment by the Carnival Association.

LIFE INSURANCE POLICY-HOLDERS AFFECTED.

Special to the Ocala Banner:

New Orleans, July 25.—The attempt of several Louisiana policyholders in New York companies to renew loans they have secured from their companies on the security of their life insurance policies has brought to light a queer state of affairs. The companies are willing to renew the loans, but a combination of Louisiana laws prevents them doing so. This is the result of the vetoing by Governor Blanchard under a misapprehension of the "Situs of Debt" bill, the object of which was the straightening out of this very tangle which had accidentally resulted from the passage of new life insurance laws by the Louisiana legislature. These laws, taken in conjunction with the state constitution and the Armstrong law of New York lay such loans in Louisiana open to assessment and tax at the rate of 2.9 per cent of the face value; while at the same time compelling the insurance companies to make such loans out of the untaxed reserve fund at 5 per cent. There is also a law compelling the companies to earn 3 1-2 per cent compound interest on all reserve funds, and another law prohibiting discrimination against Louisiana policyholders, thus making it impossible for the life companies to comply with all the laws as they exist, and relief under the law cannot now be had until another legislature assembles. The matter is of importance for the reason that the three big New York companies carry about four-fifths of the life insurance in force in the state, and each one of them has several million dollars loaned out to policyholders in Louisiana at the low interest rate of 5 per cent.
The calling in of all these loans at maturity, and they all mature once a year, would impose hardship on the borrowers, and underwriters are making strenuous efforts to find a way out of the difficulty without leaving the state and without cancelling these loans. The "Situs of Debt" bill made the domicile of such debts the domicile of the company, and under it such loans could not be assessed in Louisiana. It is possible that the policyholders will now be required to treat directly with a company headquarters and not through Louisiana agents in the matter of renewing these loans, and it is thought that in this way a solution may be found.
All policyholders who have borrowed company money for the payment of delinquent premiums or for any other purpose are affected.
